

ASSASSIN TRIES SUICIDE AND DEATH MAY FOLLOW

By Associated Press.

Glen Cove, L. I., July 6.—Frank Holt, J. P. Morgan's assailant who has also confessed to setting the bomb that exploded in the capital at Washington last Friday night, attempted to kill himself at midnight by trying to open the artery in his left wrist with a lead pencil. The attempt was unsuccessful, as jailers found Holt suffering with pain soon afterwards.

He had asked for a lead pencil to write to his wife, and extracted the rubber eraser from the tip of the pencil and with his teeth bent the metal which held the rubber in position, until a sharp blade was formed.

He refused to answer questions as to why he made the attempt. All articles he might have used to attempt suicide were taken from him before the act last night.

Holt was cheered somewhat by the receipt of a telegram from his wife which said: "Send loving greetings hourly," and "I will come when you need me."

The condition of Mr. Morgan continued to improve. Callers were expected today to see Holt with a view to determining if he closely resembled Eric Muentner, who disappeared from Harvard in 1906 after the death of his wife from alleged poisoning. A Chicago professor who knew Muentner had suggested that Holt's identity might be cleared up by looking for certain scars on his body.

The jail physician was quoted today as saying Holt is of unsound mind and should be in an asylum. Holt was considered to be in such a serious physical condition from loss of blood and refusing to eat, that forcible feeding and his removal to a hospital were considered at a conference of county officials.

Glen Cove, L. I., July 6.—The district attorney here said that Frank Holt was in such condition that he would not be surprised if he died. A former Cambridge man who knew Eric Muentner at Harvard, said today that Holt looked very much like Muentner.

Glen Cove, L. I., July 6.—The evidence that has been accumulating support the theory that Frank Holt and Eric Muentner are the same person.

BIG LOSSES IN MEXICO

By Associated Press.

Laredo, Texas, July 6.—Six hundred Carranza troops were killed in an all day battle yesterday, in a fruitless attempt to capture Paedonia, a Villa stronghold about thirty miles northwest of Monterrey, according to reports reaching here today.

18,000 men are said to have been engaged in the battle with total casualties, on both sides, of two thousand. Carranza reinforcements renewed the attack today.

EVELYN BALKS ON TESTIFYING

By Associated Press.

New York, July 6.—Evelyn Nesbit Thaw arrived in New York today from her summer camp and announced she would stand on her constitutional rights and would not take the stand against her husband, Harry K. Thaw, in the proceedings being held here to determine his sanity.

When asked if she was going to testify she said: "Take it from me, I am not." A state attorney said that the court could direct her to testify, and he would ask the court to so direct.

Mrs. Thaw had not reached the court room when the afternoon session convened and the state's attorney said that if she did not appear before adjournment today he would apply to the court for a body attachment and have her taken into custody.

PAINFULLY HURT BY CANNON CRACKER

Jack Worrell was very painfully injured Monday morning, when a cannon cracker, which had been placed under an ice cream can lid, exploded and the lid was hurled with great violence and struck him across the upper lip, inflicting a gash which required two stitches to close. No serious results are anticipated from the wound.

BOXING EXHIBITION PLEASES BIG CROWD

The scientific boxing exhibit between Floyd Tillett and Billy Palmer of this city, and their respective opponents, Bobby and Sammy Trott of Columbus, at the ball park Monday morning, was a highly popular part of the Welfare Association's Fourth of July program. The boxing was keen and earnest and at the same time strictly confined to a scientific exhibit.

The bouts were six rounds each and held in a specially constructed platform ring just in front of the grandstand. There was no "slugging," but the contests were warm and interesting and everybody was well pleased. No decisions were given and neither of the bouts was refereed. All of the boys taking part, either are, or were, at some time, professional contenders.

COMING BACK TO WASHINGTON

By a business deal consummated several weeks ago and just made public this week Stanley Chaffin, Jamestown shoe merchant, has closed out his holdings here. Mr. Chaffin has sold his shoe and gent's furnishings store to Ben Davis, of Washington C. H., of whom he purchased the stock about a year and a half ago. Mr. Chaffin had an opportunity to secure a good position in Washington C. H. and will return to that city, his former home. He has made a host of friends in Jamestown who will wish him and his wife, a Jamestown girl, every success in his future life. Mr. Davis has not decided as to the disposition of the local store. In the event he does not find a buyer he will remove the stock elsewhere. — Xenia Republican.

GLORIOUS FOURTH WAS COLDEST EVER

Monday was the coldest "fourth" of July ever known in this community, according to statements made by "oldest inhabitants."

The entire day was cool and toward evening the wind, which had shifted toward the north, was so cool that those riding found overcoats not only a comfort but a necessity.

Compared with previous "fourths" the day was decidedly out of the ordinary in regard to cool temperature.

GERMANY MAKES INFORMAL INQUIRY WITH VIEW TO AMICABLE SETTLEMENT

By Associated Press.

Washington, July 6.—Secretary Lansing stated today that a dispatch had been received from Ambassador Gerard, giving informally the views of the German government on submarine warfare, but this government has not replied.

While declining to discuss the contents of the dispatch, Mr. Lansing let it be known that the proposals contained in it were similar to those which have already been discussed in Berlin press dispatches, indicating a desire to clarify the situation before making formal answer.

Mr. Lansing stated Mr. Gerard's dispatch has been transmitted to President Wilson, where the decision rests as to the character of instructions to be given the American ambassador in answering the inquiry of Berlin officials.

The effort of the German government to learn informally what proposals would be acceptable to the United States government so that, when embodied finally in the German reply, they might be acceptable as a basis for negotiations, created the distinct impression in official quarters that the dispute between the two governments eventually would be amicably resolved.

What the German Foreign Minister suggested to Ambassador Gerard was not revealed at the State Department. It is known, however, that the announcement of the German government is to insure the safety of Americans traveling on passenger ships, and at the same time maintain the effectiveness of the submarine as a destroyer of ships primarily engaged in contraband traffic.

Germany, it is understood, has proposed a joint system of inspection through which it shall be established to the satisfaction of German consuls in the United States that belligerent ships sailing from American ports are primarily engaged in passenger traffic.

As for the treatment of cargo ships, officials are not clear how the American point of view, as expressed in its recent notes, can be served unless German submarines, before attacking, undertake to transfer the crew to a place of safety.

While no definite assurance has been given, officials here believe that further attacks without warning will not be made against any vessel, whether of neutral or belligerent character, at least until a means of insuring the safety of Americans on the high seas is agreed upon in the present negotiations.

SUES TO COLLECT ON $4000 NOTE

In common pleas court C. U. Armstrong, administrator of the estate of Wm. Lucas, deceased, has filed action against Clara Dowden for judgment in the sum of $4,000 with interest at six per cent from February 25, 1914.

Plaintiff claims that the defendant, on February 25, 1914, executed a promissory note payable to the deceased, and that the note has been lost, but no indorsements were made on it and the principal has not been paid.

E. L. Bush represents the plaintiff in the action.

The work is being done under the direction of the State Highway Commission, and is expected to place the road in tip-top condition for some time to come.

PLENTY OF NOISE ON FOURTH OF JULY

In some parts of the city the noise caused considerable annoyance to citizens generally.

RUSS HOLD BACK GERMANS

By Associated Press.

London, July 6.—The Russians are offering stiffer resistance to the Teutonic advances toward Warsaw, according to the latest report. Along the eastern battle front of approximately 850 miles from the Baltic to Bessarabia, the Russians are apparently holding their positions except near Krasnik, southern Poland, where a Teutonic army has broken through and continued its advance toward Warsaw.

BOTH SIDES REPORT GAINS

London, July 6.—The German official announcement today says that two French attacks at Les Eparges have been repulsed, that German aviators have been active against the French near Epinal and in the Vosges, and that in Russian-Poland the forces of Emperor William took a Russian position and 500 prisoners near Suwalki.

The French War Office reports a very active night along virtually the entire front. British troops have taken some German trenches in Belgium. Arras was bombarded all night long. There has been incessant fighting in the Argonne and French troops have repulsed the enemy on the heights of the Meuse, as well as near the forest of Le Pretre.

Rochambeau Killed in Alsace

On Saturday the French war office at Paris gave to the world the news that on June fourteenth on the battle field at Hartmans-Weiler, in upper Alsace, Lieutenant Count Jean de Rochambeau gave his life for France.

It may be asserted with no danger of contradiction by later detail advices that Lieutenant Rochambeau met death bravely in a manner which could only add to the glory of a family which has done much for humanity.

One hundred and thirty-five years ago on June fourteenth the great-great grandfather of the brave Frenchman who died in Alsace was nearing the American coast in command of six thousand French troops to aid the struggling American revolutionists.

On the tenth of July, seventeen eighty the French squadron with Marshall Jean de Rochambeau and his six thousand French troops on board put in at Newport and afterward until the surrender of Cornwallis at Yorktown, Jean de Rochambeau the senior was one of the closest advisors and aids to the commander in chief of the American forces.

Rochambeau and his troops were with Washington in the campaigns preceding Yorktown. Rochambeau stood at Washington's side in the trenches around Yorktown. He was part of the council which planned and executed the brilliant campaign which was the undoing of Cornwallis and ended British rule of the American Colonies. He stood at Washington's side when the commander of the British forces surrendered to Washington and heard Cornwallis announce as he gave his sword to Washington "Your Excellency's achievements in New Jersey were such that nothing could surpass them."

Two generations of Rochambeau have come and gone since Yorktown, yet the name and fame of that family, so dear to Americans, lost nothing of that glory which the conduct of the Rochambeau of revolutionary fame gave to it, when the young Lieutenant surrendered his life at Hartmans-Weiler, battling, as his ancestors have always done, for the right as he saw it.

On Independence Day America first heard the news that war had claimed Rochambeau as a victim and the joy which the day brought was saddened by the knowledge that, in the maelstrom of war in Europe, the head of a family so dear to Americans, had given his life in battle.

Prison "Investigator" Relieved

Last Friday the State Board of Administration abolished the office of "investigator" and thereby terminated Maurice J. Leen's connection with the state prison.

The office was created about two years ago and was a part of the general plan for prison reform and better treatment of the unfortunate inmates of the state penal institutions.

The work of the office which Mr. Leen assumed had particular application to the penitentiary.

It became his duty when he assumed office to investigate the record of every prisoner in the big prison. Especially was he charged with the duty of looking after the interests of those prisoners who had been forgotten by their friends in the world outside the frowning walls, and those prisoners whose relatives and friends had become discouraged, given up all hope of securing freedom for the condemned men and abandoned them to their fate.

There have been many prisoners in the penitentiary who have paid the penalty in full for their crimes whose friends rendered penniless by dishonest lawyers, have given up hope—prisoners who have no one with "a pull" outside to assist them to deserved freedom.

It was the duty of the investigator to get all the facts in such cases and submit them to the board of administration so that the state could deal justly with those convicts.

More than a hundred such cases have been "looked up" by Mr. Leen and long delayed justice has followed his reports in a number of instances.

The State of Ohio, in the creation of the office which has just been abolished, took an interest in those prisoners who had no relatives or friends on the outside who could or would become interested in their behalf.

Whether the board of administration acted wisely in abolishing the office of investigator is questionable. Perhaps right at this time, there is no unfortunate man among the two thousand inmates at the big prison who is in need of assistance but, even so, with the ever changing conditions it will not be long ere there will be other "forgotten" ones who have paid the penalty.

The great state of Ohio should be ever watchful of the welfare of its convict wards and especially should it be watchful of the rights of those who have earned and deserve freedom—those who have been reformed and are honestly and sincerely repentant should not be embittered by unjust treatment. They should not be "forgotten" by the state even though relatives and friends may abandon them to their fate.

Organized society—the state—places the convicts in prison for a purpose and it should not forget them.

Poetry For Today

THE HORNET.

The hornet is a simple beast who goes to bed at dark. He does not wake the neighborhood with caterwaul or bark. He hangs his cheap and modest nest upon a hick'ry limb, and never bothers any one who doesn't bother him. The hornet is a pacifist whom none of us can teach—a Christian insect who delights to practice what we preach.

But those who go and monkey with the gentle hornet's nest will find he can defend his home with craftsmanship and zest. His rapid-fire artillery is constantly alert, and all who insult his flag may count on getting hurt. The hornet is no diplomat of finely polished grace, and if he ever touches you you'll recognize the place.

The hornet is a model for the nations of the earth, an honest, peaceful personage of dignity and worth. He doesn't brag abroad that he is always right; he doesn't stand upon the fence and clamor for a fight; he has no military song that he delights to sing—but all who pinch a hornet may expect to feel the sting.

"Tell a woman that her new hat looks stylish, or that it looks pretty. But for the love of Mike never tell her that it looks sensible."

Women are like cigars. You can't tell anything about the filler when you look at the wrapper.

When father buys a lawn mower he always finds every one in the store until he hefts one he thinks is light enough for mother to use.

When you size up some married couples you realize that the only chance he would ever get to hit her would be in self defense.

Why is it that a jury never has any use for the man who kills his affinity because he loved her so and yet always sympathizes with the woman who kills her soul mate because she loved him so?

GOLD AND SILVER MEDALS AWARDED FAYETTE FARMERS

Fayette County Makes Big Winning of Medals at the Panama-Pacific Exposition, the Gold Medal and Three Silver Ones Coming to This County for Best Corn Shown in the Ohio Exhibit.

The gold medal and three of the seven silver medals, awarded by the Panama Exposition for the best corn exhibited from the Buckeye State come to Fayette county, H. W. Bussert "King of Ohio Corn Growers" being awarded the gold medal for the best exhibit in the entire lot.

A special dispatch from San Francisco, telling of the awards, says:

"Just now there is much joy in the Ohio household over the prizes awarded to the agricultural exhibitors in the Ohio booth, which is considered the most effective display of any eastern or middle state. In addition to the prizes given below, Deputy Commissioner L. P. Bailey, of Tacoma, Belmont county, carried off the second prize in the cream department of the national milk show last week.

Corn—Gold medal to H. W. Bussert, Bloomingburg. Silver medal to William Bailey, Yellow Springs; J. B. Clifton, New Holland; Floyd Eichelberger, Washington C. H.; Charles Graves, Antwerp; A. H. Powell, Newark; G. O. Vanorsdall, Jeffersonville; Jacob Willet, Hillsboro. Bronze medals to Thomas Adams, Newark; Frank King, Newark.

Wool—Gold medals to S. M. Clever, Delaware; Ohio State University, Columbus; L. S. Shaw, Columbus; W. M. Staley, Harpster; J. F. Walker, H. L. Nash and H. H. Cherry. Bronze medals to W. G. Cherry, Raymond D. Grieve, R. C. Williamson and J. G. Williamson & Son.

Honey—Gold medal to A. I. Root Co., Medina.

Wood—Bronze medal to Ohio Agricultural Experiment Station, Wooster.

Tobacco—Gold medal to the Ohio exhibit as a whole.

Maple Sugar—Silver medal to H.

Call of Kent. Bronze medals to F. Kingsley, Nutwood; M. G. Shaw, Middlefield.

Wheat—Gold medal to the Ohio exhibit as a whole.

Oats—Silver medal to Wm. J. Wheeler, Paulding; bronze medal to Judson Tussing, Canal Winchester. Sheaf Clover—Judson Tussing.

Medal of Honor—To the Ohio agricultural exhibit as a whole.

Honorable mention—William Bailey, grasses, Yellow Springs; Hil- es Craig, grasses, Groveport; J. D. Eckley, grasses, Marysville; A. H. Powell, Newark, sheaf clover.

"It is worthy of comment that the greater number of Ohio visitors are of the middle classes, teachers, farmers and merchants. The fear that the great distance would preclude the attendance of all except the wealthy has proven unfounded and it is gratifying to those in charge of the Ohio building, especially to Directing commissioner Newton M. Miller and the other commissioners that hundreds are coming who are considered in moderate circumstances.

"All express delight with their trip across continent and as to the exposition in every instance the realization exceeds anticipation. The universal opinion is that the trip is most profitable and worth treble the cost. As to the Ohio building, this expression is heard over and over again, 'Why, everything is so pleasant here, the rest rooms are so inviting and the reading rooms with newspapers from every county of Ohio so enjoyable, and a welcome hand extended with heartiness to all visitors, that no one can understand why certain papers in the home state should devote space to criticism.'"

Do You Want to Stay Poor

Get out of your head the idea that Poverty is something you cannot help. Just so long as you stick to that theory just so long poverty is going to stick to you. People in most cases are poor because they are too indolent—too careless—too thoughtless. Sit down and figure what you are spending, and what you can do without. Not the things that cost dollars but the articles that cost pennies. How many pennies do you waste a week? Multiply that by 52—multiply that in turn by 50. You will then get some idea of why people stay poor all their lives. Fifty years of waste will turn even a millionaire into a pauper—while 50 years of economy will make a poor man rich.

—For the pennies that are wasted are responsible for most of the misery and practically all the poverty in the world

NEW YORK

JOHN DENNER IS PLACED ON THE WITNESS STAND

When the Denner murder trial was resumed Tuesday morning John Denner, the defendant, was placed upon the stand by his attorneys, and told the story of his crime, which he claims was committed in self defense, and, under cross examination, admitted that he has served two terms in the Ohio penitentiary and one term in the intermediate penitentiary, the Mansfield reformatory—one term in the penitentiary at Columbus for horse stealing; another term in the same prison for forgery, and the term in Mansfield (21 months) for burglary and larceny.

Friday evening the nerve-strain experienced by the defendant is said to have proven too much for him, and a physician was called to administer restoratives. It is said the accused man was on the verge of a nervous collapse.

Under direct examination Tuesday morning the defendant stated he was 26 years of age; was born near South Salem, Ross county. He stated that a short time prior to the crime Bainter had offered to sell him his property for $100, and that he had purchased the property. He said that during a squabble between Bainter and Mrs. Bainter he had told them to quit quarrel and then left the premises because "I could not stay around when quarreling was going on."

The defendant testified that after the quarrel Bainter's wife, sister to the defendant, had told him that Bainter had told her that he would blow out her brains and the brains of the defendant.

Following the threat he stated that he always carried a gun. Describing the crime he said that Bainter asked him to go along to get some corn; that they started and while out in the pasture field defendant said he was going back and that Bainter pulled his gun and exclaimed: "I'll blow your d—n brains out!" thrusting the gun in his face as he spoke. Denner then stated that he pulled his own gun and "shot him down," firing two shots. He said Bainter had been drinking heavily.

Under cross-examination he admitted serving three terms in state prison, in all more than 45 months.

Denner said that his wife had not been living with him part of last fall, and was "just staying" with him at the time of the crime.

Under further cross examination Denner said his brother Jesse had heard the deal whereby Bainter had offered his property to the defendant.

Regarding the alleged threat made by Bainter of blowing out the brains of Annie Bainter and John Denner, defendant admitted under cross examination that the expression was a common one with Bainter.

Denner was kept on the stand until two o'clock. He withstood the rigid cross-examination very well. Mrs. Jackson was placed upon the stand about two o'clock. The case may go to the jury sometime Wednesday.

JULY OFFERINGS BY LOCAL STORES UNPRECEDENTED

Unfavorable Weather Conditions Have Compelled Extraordinary Price Reductions to Move Unusually Attractive Stocks—Buyers Will Benefit By Combined Sales.

This week will see inaugurated some of the greatest sales that local business men have ever put on in this community, and buying opportunities in Washington C. H. promise to excel all past records.

This is saying a good deal, but "facts is facts" and shoppers in Washington this week can test for themselves the proof of these statements.

Washington C. H. stores have long been noted for their metropolitan facilities the splendid stocks carried and excellent values given have gained for them prestige in adjacent towns for a wide radius of territory as well as through the rural districts.

Owing to untoward climatic conditions, making the season without precedent in its backwardness, merchants are forced to place on the market spring and summer stocks which were purchased in too large quantities for the season's hand-caps, and consequently new and beautiful merchandise has been greatly reduced in price.

Some idea of the remarkable bargains to be found in Washington this week may be gained from the offerings of local merchants appearing in this issue.

There will be hundreds of other bargains just as advantageous and drawing cards of sufficient magnitude to bring to Washington an immense influx of remote shoppers as well as those of the immediate vicinity, and to prove to them the city's importance as a shopping center.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank L. Stutson announce the marriage of their daughter, Mrs. Louise Stutson Potter, to Mr. Joseph Hadger Donnell, of St. Louis, Mo., on Monday, July fifth, nineteen hundred and fifteen.

A merry party celebrated the Fourth at the Dahl's country place, Sweet Briar Ridge. In the party were Mr. and Mrs. Geo. H. Hitchcock, son Hiram, Mr. and Mrs. Alex Ballard, little daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Graham Beckel, Mr. and Mrs. Pearce Ballard, Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Ireland, Miss Mary Geiger of Troy, Miss Charlotte Dahl, Messrs Dick Saxton and Willard Willis.

Mr. Orville Bush, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Bush, surprised his many friends Sunday by bringing back from a short trip to Dayton, a charming young bride, nee Miss Grace Epperson, of Cleveland.

The young couple were united in marriage Saturday afternoon by Rev. G. W. Oram, pastor of the West Side Church of Christ, of Dayton, at the home of the bride's brother, Mr. Will Epperson, of Dayton.

Mrs. Bush was formerly a Washington girl, but left here several years ago to enter the hospital training school for nurses at Cleveland, graduating a year ago.

Mr. Bush is well known and popular among a large circle of friends in this city and vicinity and the young couple are receiving congratulations galore.

Mr. and Mrs. Bush will be at home to their friends in a cosily furnished cottage which was all in readiness for their coming, four miles east of Washington.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Snyder entertained with a family party of fifteen Monday night in honor of the eighth birthday of their son Ernest.

A big birthday cake, with candles, a tempting supper and an evening's display of fire works provided a delightful birthday party.

Misses Jeanette Weaver, Lona Ellen Tharp and Bessie Casey, Messrs Robert Craig, Selsor Fenner and Howard DeWitt enjoyed a picnic supper at Rock Mills Monday night.

Sunday, July fourth, was a day of great pleasure at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. Robinett, a mile north of town.

For the first time in twenty years the nine children were seated with their father and mother in their own home.

The dinner was an elegant one. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Frank Robinett and daughter, Anderson, Ind.; Mr. Clinton Robinett and family, Mrs. Bertha Thompson, daughters Vera and Lenore; Mr. and Mrs. Joe Wingerter, of Dayton; Mrs. E. J. Combs and son Rob. of Frankfort; Mr. Oliver Robinett and wife; Mr. Clarence Robinett and family; Mr. Luther Robinett and family; Mr. John Davis and family; Mrs. Fred Roseboom and family of this city.

The day was spent in a social good time and in the evening all left for their different homes, hoping for many more reunions at the old home.

Rev. Eugene Prosser, rector of the St. Andrew's Episcopal church of this city, and of All Saints church, of Wilmington, was united in marriage to Miss Edith Hildebrand, of Wilmington, at half past eight o'clock Monday morning at the All Saints church.

It was a very beautiful wedding, with a large number of guests. Mr. Walter Patton, of this city, acted as best man.

Rev. and Mrs. Prosser left on a short trip to Cleveland and Buffalo, N. Y., after which their home will be made in Wilmington, where the good wishes of a host of friends in both Wilmington and this city will attend them.

Among guests attending from this city were Mr. and Mrs. George H. Hitchcock, Mrs. Margaret Colwell, Misses Anne Saxton and Marie Hegler, Mrs. Lash Miller.

MULTITUDE OF FRIENDS PAY TRIBUTE TO WELL KNOWN MAN

Hugh K. Stewart Funeral Sunday Afternoon One of the Largest Home Funerals Ever Held in County—Remains Are Laid to Rest in Mausoleum in the Washington Cemetery.

Few larger home funerals have ever been witnessed in the county than that which honored Mr. Hugh K. Stewart, Sunday afternoon at Spring Hill Farm.

Representative business and stock men, personal friends and a large family connection assembled to offer the last sorrowful tribute of regard. The large home was entirely inadequate for their accommodation and hundreds sought the front lawn, where seats had been placed under the trees.

Rev. Frederick E. Ross, of Grace M. E. church, conducted a beautiful and impressive service. Rev. T. C. Kerr, of the Bloomingburg Presbyterian church assisting, and Mr. J. W. Rothrock, Senior Elder representing the First Presbyterian church of Washington in the absence of the pastor.

A quartet, Mr. and Mrs. Wirt Shoop, Mrs. Arthur Burgett, and Mr. R. R. Kibler, sang effectively the hymns, "Nearer My God to Thee," and "Jesus Lover of My Soul."

Rev. Ross supplemented the following memoir with a beautiful tribute of appreciation, in which he voiced the sentiment of the community concerning Mr. Stewart's sterling life and success in attainment, and referred tenderly to the closing hours of peaceful preparation for the crossing of the bar.

MEMOIR.

Hugh Kennedy Stewart was born July the 26th, 1859, and entered into the great beyond July the 1st, 1915, leaving a record of achievement and worth that count far beyond the span of years.

He was the youngest son of six children, born to the late George and Jane Stewart, and the grandson of Col. James Stewart, one of the county's influential pioneer settlers. Four of these children survive their brother, Mrs. Mary Jane Eggleston, Mrs. Lucy Wilson, Mrs. Margaret Pettit, Mrs. Carrie Ful-leton; the brother, Charles, dying some years ago.

In his early manhood, October the 21st, 1880, Hugh K. Stewart was wedded to Laura Martin, who survives him. Most of their married life was spent at Spring Hill Farm, the hospitable country home, east of Washington, where friends were always welcome.

It was soon after his marriage that Mr. Stewart became interested in stock raising and breeding and few men have met with such success as crowned his efforts. He became one of the most prominent Jersey cattle and Duroc swine breeders in the country, with a national reputation as an authority, and was repeatedly summoned to different parts of the United States to act as judge at Jersey cattle shows. For a number of years Mr. Stewart was a director and filled the office of president of the Ohio Jersey Cattle Association and only poor health prevented his accepting honors in other organizations of the kind.

Fine stock was shipped from Spring Hill Farm all over the United States and to South America and Mr. Stewart did a big part in raising the standard of both the Jersey cattle and the Duroc swine industries. He was also interested in Percheron horses.

His business success was built upon strict integrity, no less than upon expert knowledge, and stockmen at large relied upon his judgment to make extensive purchases and shipments for them.

Several years ago Mr. Stewart discovered serious heart trouble developing and to this he finally succumbed, after a wonderful fight, in which he showed a fortitude, patience and true Christian resignation which increased the affection cherished for him by all who came within the pale of his friendship. He possessed the gift of strong and winning personality and his friends were legion. It was one of his dearest joys to gather them around him in his own home, and, even in the last hours of suffering, he always had for them a cheerful greeting.

These last days gave evidence that Mr. Stewart's membership in the Presbyterian church of Washington was no mere nominal matter and that from the fountain of a true religious faith he drew strength and comfort.

With business success at the food tide; with many interests in life calling to him; with far more than the allotted number of business and professional friends, and the future big with promise, Hugh K. Stewart heard the eternal summons and bravely he answered its call.

The family ties severed were unusually close and with a beautiful thoughtfulness the husband's last hours were spent in providing for the future comfort, as far as possible, of his devoted wife and her sister, Miss Lora Martin, who, with him, made up the little family circle.

Their happy home is indeed broken up, but they, and also the close relatives who grieve with them, have rich compensation in the remembrance of this rounded out life—a life of big accomplishments; of tender affection and loyal friendship. A life not ended, but broadening into the perfect day of God's eternal peace.

There were few dry eyes in the rooms as Mrs. Wirt Shoop sang the solo "Good Night," with quartet chorus, closing the service.

A wealth of lovely flowers surrounded the quiet sleeper in his handsome oak casket and many letters and telegrams expressed with the flowers, the sympathy and esteem of those unable to be present.

A long line of autos filled with friends accompanied the family to the Washington cemetery, where all that was mortal was laid to rest in the Mausoleum. A number were waiting at the cemetery.

The pallbearers were Messrs. Ed Klever, of Bloomingburg, Harry F. Brown, C. C. Cushman, of Chillicothe, Tom Dempsey of Columbus, J. L. Rothrock and Frank Johnson.

Among relatives and friends who came from a distance were Mrs. Margaret Pettit, sister, of St. Louis, Mo.; Miss Margaret Fullerton, of Columbus; Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Martin, Mr. and Mrs. Rodney Martin, Miss Mildred Martin, of Dayton; Mr. C. H. Martin, Akron; Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Martin, Miss Jessie Martin, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Dempsey, Mrs. A. T. Dempsey, and Laura Stewart Dempsey, Mr. and Mrs. Nolan Hathaway, Dr. and Mrs. Chas. Swope, Mr. and Mrs. Will Swope, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Darnell, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Jefferson, Columbus; Mr. Robert Evans, of Chicago, Secretary National Duroc Record Co. and editor Duroc Bulletin; Mr. Renick Dunlap, Mr. D. H. Dresbach, Kingston; Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Cushman, Chillicothe; Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Penry, Radnor; Miss Jessie Martin, London.

WASHINGTON TAKES THREE FROM GEM CITY RESERVES

Outclassed in every respect, the Gem City Reserves lost three games to the Washington Athletics here Sunday and Monday. Good attendance and good weather greeted each of the exhibitions.

The scores of the games were as follows: Sunday afternoon, Athletics, 10, Reserves, 6; Monday morning, Athletics 10, Reserves 6; Monday afternoon, Athletics 15, Reserves 4.

With these three victories the tide of fortune returns to the favor of the local ballplayers, who have, for several weeks past been under the spell of the merciless jinx.

Features of the holiday series were admirable team work on the part of the Athletics, good batting and the addition of Hi Grandie to the sluggers' list. Nip Jones, too, seemed to have developed a new grip on the rosewood, and laid out a number of good, timely hits.

In each of the games the result was apparent long before the close, but all were enjoyed by the fans who, for the first time in many months have had their fill of the national sport.

The umpiring of Evans was generally satisfactory.

Sunday Afternoon.

Cotterill pitched the Sunday afternoon game and well he did it. The game started off with spirit. Through a combination of circumstances the visitors filled the bases in the first frame with but one man out. Good twirling and team work put a crimp in their aspirations, however, and not a man crossed the home plate.

When the Athletics began getting into Moore with a right good will before the game had progressed three innings, the Reserves went to pieces and a continuous program of errors and bonehead plays marked their finish.

Monday Morning.

Ross pitched for Washington and his work was decidedly superior to that of his contemporary, Niebar, who was taken out before the game closed. Howard Gregg, local high school pitcher who was assigned for the slab in this game, was forced to resign the commission at the risk of being outlawed from local high school athletics.

The position of the Athletics seemed precarious in the fifth, when the Reserves started a batting bee and rushed six scores over. The Athletics neatly turned the trick in the same inning, however, accumulating the same number of tallies and thereby taking the pep out of the Daytonians.

Monday Afternoon.

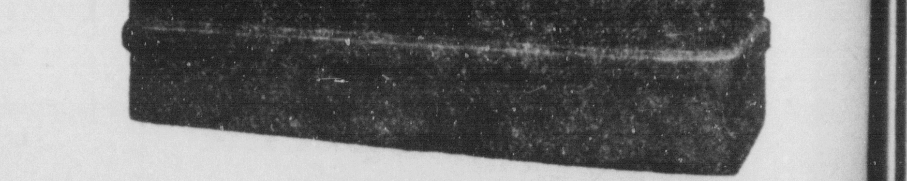

In the third game of the series the fans were treated to a first class exhibition in the opening innings. Washington scored in the first and thereafter no runs crossed the plate on either side until the opening of the fifth, when Dayton squeezed two across. In the fifth the Athletics began connecting with the speed of Mr. O. Green, which had retarded their progress before, and in a short time a slugger royal was in progress. Five scores came and ten batsmen faced the Dayton pitcher.

Green went straight up after three more runs were scored by the Athletics in the seventh, and was relieved at the slab by P. Good. The festival had gained too good a start, however, to be checked instantly, and the result was that the inning did not close until the Athletics had achieved a total of six scores.

The remainder of the game was without feature. The Athletics made no effort to stop straggling scores, confining their attention to safe plays.

Linson's twirling was up to the mark and his support irreproachable. The box score follows:

TRADE DOLLAR MEANDERINGS

When the Dutch Treat Club "trade dollar" came into the possession of the Katz store, Saturday afternoon, Mr. Katz hurried around to the Bachert garage where he invested the leacher cased coin in some "gas" for his automobile, and it was two or three hours before Mr. Bachert decided that he was in need of a pencil sharpener, and at H. R. Rodecker's stand the dollar went as part payment for a mechanical sharpener.

Mr. Rodecker carried the big coin to Craig Bros.' store and there invested in a tie and belt, leaving the dollar in exchange for the articles. It did not stay at Craig Bros. long, but was escorted by Mr. D. S. Craig to the Duffee grocery and in exchange for the coin Mr. Craig carried off some soap, baking powders and some small coins in change.

About nine o'clock Saturday night Mr. Duffee went to the White Tile Meat Market and made a purchase of meat, for which he paid over the trade dollar which already had been owned by ten persons during the day and had been expended once for glass tumblers, shirt and collars, sack of sugar, straw hat, box of cigars, tie, gasoline, pencil sharpener, tie and belt, soap and baking powders.

The dollar remained in the possession of J. W. Anderson until Tuesday.

FALSE REPORT IS CIRCULATED

It having come to me that a report is circulated that I have withdrawn from the Mayorality primary, I desire to inform the public that there is nothing to it, but that I will be in the race until the polls close on August 10th, and hope that I may be the nominee, so that I can say that I will be in the race until the close of the polls in November.
